View black and white drawings and color etchings by renowned Czech artist Karel Demel representing surrealist illustrations of the book "Songs of Maldoror." This book was written in the 1860's by influential French author Isidore Ducasse (also known as the Comte de Lautréamont), at age 22. Ducasse died 2 years later, and his book, discovered by chance 50 years later, became an inspirational source and a reference for the surrealists, poets and artists alike. Organized by SOS ART.

Opening Reception: Friday, September 1, 6:30 - 8:30pm

Surrealist Poetry Reading: Saturday, September 9, 1 - 4pm

Enjoy a short presentation of the exhibit and the book, followed by readings by local poets of their own surrealist poems and/or of some of their favorite surrealist poems by other poets.

All events are free, open to the public, light refreshments served.
